

NOTICE TO CCP RFP SITE FAMILIARIZATION TOUR ATTENDEES

This site familiarization tour is for informational purposes only. Any statements and/or representations made today are not binding. You are cautioned that the ONLY controlling documents/information are the Request for Proposal and any amendments thereto.

You are also advised that you may not be provided access to some areas today for safety or other reasons. The area(s) may become accessible in the future. There are dates and times available for future tours. However, access to a particular area cannot be guaranteed and such access, if any, cannot be guaranteed for a specific day. We will make every attempt to cooperate with interested parties in scheduling tours and access.

You are advised that any personal items that you choose to take with you on the tour may be confiscated if the items become contaminated or are believed to be contaminated. These items may not be returned to you.

Failure to follow the tour guide's instructions, especially regarding safety, may result in the tour being concluded before completion. The entire group shall return to the entry point in accordance with safety procedures. You may reschedule for a later date.
